GENERAL RULES

1. Anyone including the show judges, may exhibit in the show. Designs are by reservation only.
2. This Accredited American Iris Society Show is organized according to the rules and regulations of the American Iris Society as set forth in the Handbook for Judges and Show Officials, 2007, and subsequent rules and regulations approved by the American Iris Society Board of Directors. Accredited judges of the American Iris Society will judge all entries in the Horticulture, and Seedlings Divisions. To judge the Design Division, a National Garden Clubs Accredited judge may serve on the panel of judges.
3. The official rules and regulations of the American Iris Society can not be violated.
4. Entries will be received Saturday June 2, 2018 between 8:30am and 10:30 am. Judging will commence at 11:00 am Saturday June 2, 2018 and be completed by 1:00 pm when the show will be open to the public. Judges decisions will be final. Any award may be withheld at the discretion of the judges.
5. All entries must carry AIS show tags properly filled out. Unlabeled or mislabeled entries will be disqualified. Horticulture entry cards are to be prepared by the exhibitor.
6. The Show Committee, the American Iris Society, the Western New York Iris Society, and Eastern Hills Mall cannot be responsible for loss or damage to exhibits. All possible care will be exercised throughout the show to ensure exhibits are safe.
7. Entries will be removed after 4:00pm on Saturday, June 2nd. Any exhibit not claimed by the Exhibitor at the conclusion of the show on Saturday will be disposed of by the Show Committee.

HORTICULTURE RULES

1. No unnamed cultivar may be exhibited except seedlings which may be entered in Division II. Only fresh, cut specimens are accepted.
2. Each iris must have been grown in the garden of and entered in person by the exhibitor whose name appears on the entry tag. Each entry of an exhibitor must be of a different variety. There is no limit to the number of entries. Members of a family may exhibit from one garden.
3. This is a cultivar show, staged according to type and in alphabetical order within the various sections and groups. Each cultivar constitutes a separate group and must be correctly named.
4. Irises which have not been offered for sale may be entered in the SEEDLING Division by the originator.
5. An exhibitor may enter a seedling originated by another person but the hybridizer's name and the seedling name or number must appear on the entry card.
6. Exhibitor will place the specimen in provided bottle, wedge and groom the iris, attach label to bottle and have the specimen passed by Horticulture Classification. Then exhibitor will place the entry in the area provided, turning it over to the Placement Committee. Entries will then be moved by the Placement Committee ready for judging, and at this time all of the flowers are show property of the Western New York Iris Society. Entries will be placed in classes and judged by variety. Collections may be placed by exhibitor.
7. No pollen may be taken from any iris without the exhibitor's consent.
8. Uniform containers will be furnished by the show committee. No other containers or embellishment is permitted.
9. Wedging material will be furnished by the Show Committee for bracing stalks at the neck of the furnished containers.
10. Exhibitors of Collections must furnish containers appropriate for the exhibit.
11. Unnamed stalks (not seedlings), potted exhibits or labeled iris grown by another person are not eligible for AIS ribbons and awards, but may be displayed on a table marked "FOR DISPLAY ONLY."
12. The Show Committee may remove, combine, or create new classes if it becomes advisable.
13. Bulbous irises and collections are eligible to receive award ribbons, section awards and section rosettes. Award ribbons are included in the tally for Silver and Bronze Medal/Certificates although these entries are not eligible for the "Best Specimen of Show" award.

HORTICULTURE AWARDS

First Place (blue), Second Place (red), Third Place (white), and as many Honorable Mention (pink) ribbons may be awarded in a class or subclass as the panel of judges deems worthy. One ribbon per specimen.
